Letter from One of Gen. Pope's Officers in a Ritchmond Prison—Barbarty of the Richels.

[From the Madison (who.) Journal, 27th]
The following letter from Lieut, Wilvey, who was taken prisoner at the battle of Cod at Mountain, was received last evening by Mr. K. J. Firlacher of this city. It will be read with painful interest, and is calculated to intensity the barred with which all loyal men regard the leaders of the present most wicked and diabolical rebellion:

Remson. Va., August 16, 1864.

DEAR FRIEND: I am where least of any pince on earth I would be, in a 8un-hern prison. The place is a most burrile one. To place wherein we are is inflity-five by fifty lest, and contains 166 prisoners, thirly-six of whom are officers, including Gen. Prince. It is derk and flithy beyond description. We sleep on the damp, ditry floor, without blankets or bedding of any kind. Our food is bread and fresh best, selfqui sail. We get only half rations, and are excluded from buying snything outside. We are deprired of water, except what is drawn from the fifthy James River, which is a warm as if heated over a fire. You have no like show shamefully we are treated. The balsince of the 166 are mon of all classes—generally of the very lawest, being teamiers and camp fellowers. In the room is the privy, which stars awfully, as do the menters and camp fellowers. for the war. If any county in this State har raised more troops than Kankakee county, I would like to see it shown. I appeal to the record. I challenge comparison. We claim he banner.

During the first call and up to last June, we raised 800 men. We have raised under the last two calls 900 men, amounting in all to 1,700 men. I think we should count many more if we knew of all who have enlisted out of the county, for regiments out of the Stats.

Our county population was 15,000. Therefore you see that we have sent one-eighth of our entire population to the war.
In some towns there are not enough men let to care for the families remaining. Grain, in places, has rotted because there was no one left to stack it. Such is the noble outpouring of our sous to uphold our country's flag annie. in piaces, has rotted occases there was no one left to stack it. Such is the noble outpouring of our sons to uphole our country's flag amid the battle strife. Our foresthers left their teams in the fields and hastened away to defend their country. It it was a giori us toing then, if it showed noble particulam at our ustion's darkest hour, it is not less noble and glorlous now for our fathers and some to leave stacks of grain balf finished and raily around our country's standard. If a frait is made in this country we shall have but few men left, and or young. If any county has done better, let it speak.

We are without any information as to the elituation at Vicksburg, except what we find in the journals of that city of yesterday morning.

The Whig states that two of the enemy's transports and three gunboats went up to Hayne's Binfl, ou Tuesday evening, and took of six pleces of heavy artillery that were by ling there to be mounted. They also went every imaginarie kind of depradations, when the boats started up the river, the officers deciring their intention to &p to the transports.

The Officers thinks it is merely a foraging expedition to aceal what may come in their stay, but we suppose light artillary and case and the control of the control THE NEW YACH?

THE THEATRICAL REBEL. -George Roscoe

THE TREATRICAL REBELL.—George Roscoe, the theatrical rebel whose arrest we noticed yesterday, is a native of Kentucky. He has a university, and subsequently spent two years and a half in a military academy. He served eight months in the rebel army as a Lieutensut, and then, leaving his sword, uniform and commission with the rebel deneral Buckner, and then, is since been closely watched. For rescons known only to the officers of the government, the exact charges cannot now be made upible. We are assured, however, that he has been in frequent and constant communication with the enemy. At one time Roscoe had military charge of the roads leading out of Mem-

It is also due from our deal ra in trult that they select and make ready anything they can for the show. Undoubtedly our city is the largest market for fruit on the continent. It would be but small credit to our fruit dealers it they fail to embrace the opportualty of pre-senting a show of fruit worthy their enter-prize and the thrift of their business. We trust no one will be backward in the work, considering more especially, that our soldiers in the hospitals will receive all the profits growing out of the show. Our coun-

MINERGYA.—The Hon. William Windom has been manimonaly renominated by the ReJubileas for Congress in the lat (lower) District of Minesor's, and the Hop. Ignating Donaelly (present Lieut. Governor) nominated in place of Mr. Aldrich in the 2d (St. Paul) District. We believe these are both excellent selections, and that they will be triumphantly ratified by the people.
